

FELLOWS OF DISTINCTION: MAKING NEWS AND MAKING A POSITIVE DIFFERENCE IN REPRODUCTIVE LAW

- At the American Fertility Association's 2011 Illuminations NY event, Susan Crockin, along with Dr. Howard Jones, co-author with Susan of the recently-published book, "Legal Conceptions", was honored with "The Joyce M. Vargyas, M.D. Visionary Award" for pioneering work in the area of ART. Susan devotes many hours conducting discussions, writing articles and presenting programs for AFA.
- Colleen Quinn, who chaired the 2011 AAARTA mid-year, is the recipient of Greater Richmond YWCA Outstanding Woman Award for Law & Government 2011, and was also awarded the 2011 "Hats off to Women" Award by the Cavalier Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA).
- AAARTA Fellows Meryl Rosenberg, Diane Hinson, Susan Crockin and Peggy Swain published articles in the ABA 2011Fall Family Advocate.
- Current Officers of the ASRM Legal Professional Group include AAARTA Fellows Susan Crockin (Chair), Meryl Rosenberg (vice-chair), Diane Michelsen (Member-at-Large), Nidhi Desai (Immediate Past-Chair) and Peggy Swain (Past Chair).
- In recognition of his long-standing commitment and activism for LGBT rights, Bill Singer has been elected to receive the ACLU of New Jersey Bill of Rights Award for Outstanding Legal Work. This prestigious recognition is given to one attorney per year for making significant contributions in the struggle for civil liberties.
- Raegen Rasnic is in the second year of working with RESOLVE, the national fertility support, advocacy and education group, to create continuing medical education programming on embryo donation.